

10 March 2009

Media Release: Calliden now included in All Ords

Effective from 20 March 2009 Calliden Group Limited is now included in the All Ordinaries Index following the most recent rebalance by Standard and Poors.

Standard & Poor's Index Services, recently announced the constituent additions and deletions that will take place in respect to the S&P/ASX Indices, effective from the close of trade on 20 March 2009.

Nick Kirk Calliden Group's Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer said:

"This status is an important milestone in the continued strength of Calliden and reflects the resilience of Calliden's market capitalisation in comparison to the overall market in recent times."

The All Ordinaries Index is comprised of the 500 largest securities listed on the Australian Securities Exchange. Once a quarter the entire S&P/ASX Index suite is rebalanced, including the All Ordinaries Index which is the total market indicator for the Australian equity market.

For further information please contact:

Mike Hooton, Group Executive Marketing & Distribution Calliden Group, 02 9551 1150